Reminiscent of a man's tailored suit, the Afrika Sofa Collection, is a sleek seating series with clean lines and neutral gray fabrics. Designed by Jorge Pensi for Carmenes, the minimal form of the design is punctuated with colorful bars that are embedded in the sides of the armrests and continue around to form the legs of each piece.

The lacquered metal strips are customizable in any RAL color so it will fit into any decor. I love how they paired the bright red with the charcoal gray fabric on the sofa. Available as a sofa, an armchair, and a swivel chair, at Mondo Collection.
