SKU: PIMOAR-403-ONDULATION STOOL

The unusual shape defining the Ondulation collection stems from a project extracted from a digital animation: "d_fuse05". Born of the digital world, Pimar natural stone takes the shape of a series of structures similar to undulating towers. The result is a "family" of remarkable objects comprising a table, a stool and a vase, entirely made from stone thanks to the turning technique. They may perform everyday functions in outdoor spaces but also lend themselves to providing indoor furnishing solutions.
